WHAT'S FIFPRO?

FIFPro is the worldwide representative organisation for all professional footballers; more than 60,000 players in total, male and female. The World Players' Union currently has 65 national players' associations as their members. Five candidate members and four observers hope to join FIFPro in the near future.

The mission 'FIFPro supports players' and our mission statement 'FIFPro is the exclusive collective voice of the world's professional footballers' are key principles. These are the two guiding foundations that underpin FIFPro's activities.

WHAT'S SINDICATO

DOS JOGADORES?

The Portuguese Players' Union is the representative body of football players in Portugal, defending their rights and legitimate interests, collective and individual, in the context of the sports employment relationship.

WHAT'S FIFPRO TOURNAMENT?

It's a competition organised by Unions where teams with players without a contract, offering the participants a chance to be options for clubs which can be interested in free players.

This year hosted by the portuguese Union and support by FIFPro and Portuguese FA, four teams will be played in Odivelas, Portugal.

In twelve editions, the team of the portuguese Union has always participated and the first edition played in Portu-

WHERE IS THE FIFPRO

TOURNAMENT PLAYED?

For the first time, Odivelas, 2020 European Sports City, hosts the competition.

After Lisbon in 2007 and 2015, Odivelas has been chosen to host the FIFPro Tournament.

It's in Odivelas that will be built the future home of the Players' Union, which will have the Player Academy, a multidisciplinary project where, through sports, it's intended that the player can have a central role in a relationship with the community based in several actions.

WHEN WILL THE FIFPRO

TOURNAMENT TAKE PLACE?

The first edition of the FIFPro International Tournament was played in Paris, France (2005) and the winner was the host country.

Portugal played in all editions and was second in 2006. That time, the Players' Union team, with Emílio Peixe as a coach, has beaten Netherlands and Slovenia (2-1 and 1-0), had a draw (0-0) with Germany and lost 1-0 with France.

The Netherlands holds the record as a host country of the FIFPro International Tournament: seven times.

This will be the 13th edition of the Tournament.
